intelligent PLACEMENT

RECRUITMENT PARTNER WITH THE PERSONAL TOUCH

Intelligent Placement was founded in September 2013 by Faith Solomon with the objective to develop an alternative recruitment and placement company in South Africa.

With years spent building client relationships, we understand perfectly that no two organizations or candidates are the same. Our multi-discipline approach and experience gives us the unique capability to match the right candidate to the job.

Our National Team of Consultants consist of experienced professionals who will serve their clients through excellence, with passion and integrity throughout South Africa.

INTRODUCTION

VISION

The Company would endeavour, through its expertise, and network to provide a unique value proposition, which will ensure continued growth and profit sustainability, initially within South Africa and expanding into clearly defined national markets as the business develops and grows.

Our value proposition is to offer a range of high quality products and service solutions to the general public, and organisation that would encompass a complete package (product, price, quality and service) to the benefit of the client

Why a Recruitment Agent

Being the best means having the best people, and getting the best people is hard work. Hard work can be made easy and simplified by applying the best recruitment technology and partnering with the best recruitment resources. We understand the world of recruitment, the complexities and effort that you put into it and it is our job to give you back the gift of time.

Time is the one thing everyone wants but no one seems to have. And when you are tasked with recruiting, it can be a full-time job finding the right people for permanent employment.

Partnering with a recruitment consultant can address your staffing needs, and give you back the gift of time
